

Affidavit of Owner of Eligible Personal Property Claiming Exemption from Collection of Taxes (As of 12-31-2013)

Notice: Questions regarding this form should be directed to the assessor of the city or township where the personal property is located. This form was approved by the State Tax Commission on November 4, 2013 under the authority of Public Act 206 of 1893. This form must be filed by the owner or the owner's authorized agent.

Name and Address of Owner

To claim an exemption, this Affidavit must be received by the Assessor no later than February 10, 2014.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: This affidavit will exempt property owned only by the entity filing the affidavit. If personal property is leased to or used by an entity other than the property's owner, the owner of that personal property must file the affidavit for that property, not the lessee or the user. The owner may file the affidavit and claim the exemption only if the True Cash Value of all of the commercial or industrial personal property located within the city or township that is owned by, leased to, or in the possession of the owner or a related entity was less than $80,000 on December 31, 2013.

Trade Fixtures: Items of property that have been attached to real estate by a tenant to facilitate the tenant's use of the property for business purposes and which are both capable of being removed and are removable by the tenant under the terms of the lease. Examples of trade fixtures are certain costs related to telephone and security systems and most signs.

Leasehold Improvements: Land improvements, such as paving and landscaping, and improvements made by a tenant to structures owned by the landlord. Leasehold improvements are characterized by the fact that they cannot be removed for use elsewhere because they will be destroyed by removal. Leasehold improvements may be assessed as real property to the owner of the real property or may be assessed as personal property to the tenant.
