

Black Hills Spruce

Picea glauca 'Densata'

A variety of white spruce, grows to 20-40 ft., symmetrical, compact, slow growing. Needles may range from bright green to bluish green.

Trees sometimes similar to P. glauca.

Growth Rate: Moderate to Slow (0-12"/yr.)

Soils: Sand, Loam, Clay
Moisture: Dry to Moist-Wet

Shade Tolerance: Full Sun to Part Shade

Mature Height: 40-60 ft.

Deer Damage Potential: Low

Origin: Native

Uses: Christmas Trees,
Naturalizing, Wildlife,
Windbreaks